Daily Confessions

MONDAY

I decree that God has given me victory through Jesus Christ, and I will stand confidently in what He has already secured for me.
— 1 Corinthians 15:57

TUESDAY

I decree that I am more than a conqueror, and no trial, opposition, or circumstance will separate me from the love and purpose of God.
— Romans 8:37

WEDNESDAY

I decree that fear will not control me, because God has given me power, love, and a sound mind to face every battle with courage.
— 2 Timothy 1:7

THURSDAY

I decree that every weapon formed against me will fail to accomplish its purpose, and I will remain secure under the protection and authority of God. — Isaiah 54:17

FRIDAY

I decree that I will not become weary in doing what is right, because I believe my season of harvest and victory will come if I refuse to give up. — Galatians 6:9

SATURDAY

I decree that the battles before me belong to the Lord, and I will trust His wisdom, strength, and strategy instead of depending solely upon my own ability. — 1 Samuel 17:47

HOUSEHOLD PRAYERS

MARRIED COUPLES PRAYER:

Lord, I declare victory over every attack against my marriage, and I choose faith, unity, forgiveness, and obedience as You strengthen our covenant and teach us to stand together in You. — 1 Corinthians 15:57

CHILDREN'S PRAYER:

Lord, I ask You to help me walk in courage, obedience, and faith, knowing that with You I can overcome fear, temptation, and every challenge that comes against me.
— Philippians 4:13

SINGLE'S PRAYER:

Lord, I declare that I am more than a conqueror through Christ, and I will not allow fear, delay, rejection, or disappointment to defeat my faith or distract me from Your purpose for my life.
Scripture: — Romans 8:37

MEMORY VERSE

"THIS IS THE DAY WHICH THE LORD HATH MADE: WE WILL REJOICE AND BE GLAD IN IT."

— PSALM 118:24 KJV

30 MIN. OF POWER The Book of Proverbs

In September, read, study, and meditate on one chapter a day, applying its truth to your life. Ask God how the virtue in each chapter helps you Reach others with His love, Redeem areas needing restoration, Rebuild what's broken, and Release burdens. Let the chapter teach you to preach boldly, pray with authority, prophesy His plans, heal the wounded, and deliver those in need of freedom.

OUR MISSION:

PREACH, PRAY, PROPHECY, HEAL, & DELIVER

To ignite people in their power and authority worldwide, helping them discover their purpose and gifts to demonstrate God's power. People around the globe will walk in the Spirit every day and transform their thinking by the power of Jesus Christ. John 4:23

AUGUST WEEK 5 – 8/30/26

THE DAY OF THE LORD

WORD OF THE WEEK

This is the day that the Lord has made. Before you opened your eyes, before you knew what this day would bring, and before you made a single plan, God had already established today. Psalm 118:24 declares, "This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." If God made this day and allowed you to enter it, then there is purpose attached to your presence in it.

You were not simply given another 24 hours—you were given another opportunity to participate in the will of God. Ephesians 2:10 tells us that we were created in Christ Jesus for good works "which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them." There are things God has already prepared for you to walk into. There are conversations you are meant to have, people you are meant to impact, decisions you are meant to make, prayers you are meant to pray, and steps you are meant to take. Your day carries an assignment.

This is why you cannot afford to approach each morning casually. Before filling your day with your own agenda, learn to ask, "Lord, what is Your plan for me today?" Proverbs 16:9 says, "The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps." God desires to order even the seemingly ordinary parts of your life. What looks insignificant to you may be a moment He has intentionally placed in your path.

And because this is the day the Lord has made, yesterday does not have authority over it. Yesterday's mistakes, disappointments, delays, or failures do not determine what God can do today. His mercies are new every morning. Likewise, tomorrow does not need to consume you. God gives you grace for the day He has placed in your hands.

Sometimes we become so focused on the "one day" when everything changes that we overlook what God is doing this day. We wait for the big opportunity, the answered prayer, the open door, or the fulfillment of the promise, while God is shaping our future through daily obedience. What you do with today may be preparing you for what you have been praying to see tomorrow.

So do not merely get through today—steward it. Pray over it. Submit it to God. Pay attention to His leading. Be intentional with your time, your words, your decisions, and your obedience. There is grace for today, strength for today, provision for today, and purpose for today.

SPEAK LIFE: "TODAY HAS PURPOSE, AND I WILL WALK IN IT."
